

Parrot Cove Association Board Meeting

February 27, 2007

Location: St. Andrew's church - Time: after General Meeting

In attendance were:

Kris Rouse, Diana Scheiner, Navy Bean, Phil Weinrich, Anna Schafer, Sandy Coccozzelli.

General Matters:

- Bank account forms were signed by Diana Scheiner, Navy Bean and Anna Schafer.
- Question came up if we are having general meetings during the summer months – still needs to be discussed and decided.
- Navy will ask previous board members if they have the By-Laws to determine how often the association has to meet

Crime Watch Committee:

Raychel Houston, a Lake Worth Policewoman was present at the General meeting and will be attending all Parrot Cove Association meetings. Her e-mail address and cell phone number will be available on our website.

Sandy and Kris met with Joel Silverstein about the Crime Watch issue – a meeting time to be announced, and all interested are invited.

Upcoming meetings:

Mar 23 – “Parrot in the Hood” at Kris Rouse home – reminder will be sent out by email to about 40 neighbors and signs will be put up.

April 24 – Nature month with guest speaker Phil Weinrich

May 19 - block party

Treasurer's report:

At the beginning of the year there was $5,719.04 in the general account and $4,279.06 in the “Home Tour” account. Anna will keep a quickbooks account from the beginning of 2007.

Boundary Signs:

Navy will contact Kal Boynton re information gathered by pervious board on design, number and cost of signs. With that information Anna will contact Darrin Engel from the City's Historic Board to get input on how to place the signs. It was agreed that signs should be placed at entrance points into the PCN area. One suggestion was on 8th ave north, on space on corner, by Spanish church.

Meeting Signs:

Navy is ordering 10 additional meeting signs for $100.- that announce our general meetings.

The signs will say:
(if logo use a parrot)
