

Parrot Cove Board Meeting
September 24th 2009

Those in attendance include Dana McLaughlin, Anna Schafer, Kristi Gaza, Teresa Miller, Jennifer Tinker, and Brian Gleason

Anna provided an update regarding neighborhood signs explaining she has gotten little assistance or feedback from Commissioner Jo Anne Golden. It was agreed Anna will continue to send emails to Jo Anne and cc all board members and commissioners until some type of progress is made.

Anna suggested we use extra funds from previous home tour towards off setting costs for a home tour this year. There was concern the economy would hinder ticket sales. It was agreed a home tour committee be established to determine the viability of a home tour this year.

Brian discussed concern some residents in College Park and Parrott Cove are being overcharged for water they do not actually use. There is no clear explanation of how the cost is determined on bill.

It was suggested we invite City Manager and Utilities director to a meeting to discuss this issue. College Park residents would like to attend this meeting as well.

There was an article in The Observer regarding the painting of fire hydrants

Block party is scheduled for Nov 14th from 6-9, but board members will need to help set up at 4.

It was decided there would be no more businesses allowed to advertise in the classifieds

Newsletter topics were discussed. Oct 27th is the next meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 8 pm

Dana McLaughlin