

Parrot Cove General Meeting April 24, 2007

Location: 100 North Palmway Time: 7:00 p.m.

I. Call to Order – Tim (Navy) Bean

Navy discussed the Parrot Cove neighborhood signs and asked if anyone had the original design. Jim, prior president, said that we may want to look at the smaller signs that are being used in neighborhoods in West Palm Beach, north of Southern Blvd.

Navy reminded everyone of the Parrot in the Hood at Anna's house on May 18 and of the upcoming garage sale on June 9.

Rachel Houston and Joel Morgenstein from Lake Worth Police Dept were introduced. Officer Houston said that there were no major residential break-ins in the Parrot Cove area this last month. Officer Morgenstein said that if anyone was interested in setting up a neighborhood crime watch to contact him.

A sign-up sheet was passed around and Kris collected it. Approximately 30 people were in attendance. Drinks and popcorn were available.

II. Speaker

Phil Weinrich was introduced and gave a great presentation on the "Miracle of Bird Migration".

Meeting adjourned at 8 30 PM

A brief board meeting was held following the meeting and it was agreed that when new people move into the community, a Parrot Cove board member would ensure that they are invited, as a guest to the next Parrot Cove function.
