

Parrot Cove Kids Night Sept 18, 2006

Location: Believer's Church Time: 6:00 p.m.

This was the first meeting held at Believer's Church and the minister provided a lovely "welcome screen" for our special Kids event. A special "Thank you" to Believer's Church for accommodating our group.

Board Members in attendance: Lynnette Romano, Kris Rouse, Diana Scheiner

Activities included face-painting by Gin Weintraub. The children loved this event.

The first guest speaker was Sue Warner, Recreation Supervisor for the city of Lake Worth. She distributed the latest edition of the "City Times" and reviewed upcoming activities. Current information on activities is available at the website www.lakeworth.org

The second speaker was Judy Reed, Library Service Manager of the Lake Worth Library. She brought complimentary books for all the children and they each received one or more. She also distributed pencils to promote the Ask a Librarian program www.askalibrarian.org. This program provides a live reference chat 7 days a week and is available from your home.

There is now Wi-Fi at the Lake Worth Library during hours of operation.

Magnets with times and hours of operation of the library were also distributed.

There were 11 children and 8 adults in attendance.

Pizza and juice were provided, as were coloring books and toys.
